conditions of service of Chairman,
Vice-Chairman and members.

5. (1) The Vice-Chairman and other members (other than an ex officio member) shall be appointed by the Government ordinarily for a term of four years and shall be eligible for re-appointment for a second term:

Provided that a person who has not attained the age of sixty-five years shall be eligible to be appointed as Vice-Chairman;

Provided further that it shall be competent for the Government to make any appointment under this sub-section for a term of less than four years if it considers necessary so to do:

Provided also that the Vice-Chairman or any other member (other than an ex officio member) who incurs any disqualification under the rules made in this behalf shall cease to hold the office of Vice-Chairman or member.

The West Bengal State Council of Higher Education Act, 1994.

(Sections 6-10.)

(2) The Vice-Chairman or any other member (other than an ex officio member) may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Government, and every such resignation shall take effect from the date on which it is accepted by the Government.

(3) The Vice-Chairman or any other member (other than an ex officio member) shall not be removed from his office except by an order of the Government on the ground of wilful omission or refusal to carry out the provisions of this Act or abuse of the powers vested on him and after such inquiry as may be ordered by the Government when such Vice-Chairman or member, as the case may be, shall be given an opportunity of making his representation against such removal.

(4) When a person is qualified to be a member of the State Council by virtue of his representing a particular institution or interest, he shall cease to be a member of the State Council when he ceases to represent such institution or interest.

(5) If any casual vacancy occurs in the office of the Vice-Chairman or any other member (other than an ex officio member), whether by reason of his death, resignation or inability to discharge his functions owing to illness or other incapacity or for any other reason, such vacancy shall be filled by the Government as soon as may be in the manner provided in sub-section (1). Such Vice-Chairman or nominated or appointed member shall hold office only for the remainder of the term for which the person whose place he fills would have remained as the Vice-Chairman or nominated or appointed member, as the case may be.

(6) The office of the Vice-Chairman and the Member-Secretary shall be whole-time and salaried, and the other terms and conditions of service of the Vice-Chairman and other members shall, subject to the provisions of this sub-section, be such as may be prescribed.

(7) The Chairman, the Vice-Chairman and the Member-Secretary shall exercise such powers and perform such functions as may be prescribed.

Meetings of the State Council.

6. The State Council shall meet at such times and places, and shall observe such rules of procedure in regard to the transaction of business at its meetings, as may be provided by regulations made under this Act.

Vacancies amongst members or defect in Constitution not to invalidate acts or proceedings of the State Council.

7. No act or proceedings of the State Council shall be deemed to be invalid by reason of any vacancy in, or any defect in the Constitution of, the State Council.

Temporary association of persons with the State Council for particular purpose.

8. The State Council may associate with it in such manner and for such purpose as may be prescribed any person whose assistance or advice is required for carrying out its work. A person associated with the State Council for such purpose shall have the right to take part in the discussions relevant to such purpose but shall not have the right to vote at a meeting of the State Council and shall not be a member for any other purpose. The State Council may associate with it members of Medical, Engineering and Agricultural Universities and such other expert bodies as the Government may, by order, specify with a view to developing co-ordination among the Universities.

Staff of the State Council.

9. (1) The State Council may appoint officers, other than Secretary, and other employees with the previous approval of the Government from time to time in accordance with the prescribed guidelines.

(2) The classification and methods of recruitment, conditions of service, pay and allowance, disciplinary conduct and functions and responsibilities of the officers and other employees referred to in sub-section (1) shall be such as may be prescribed.

Authentication of orders and other instruments of the State Council.

10. All orders and decisions of the State Council shall be authenticated by the signature of the Chairman or any other member authorised by the State Council in this behalf, and all other instruments issued by the State Council shall be authenticated by the signature of the Secretary or any other officer of the State Council authorised in the like manner in this behalf.

Powers and functions of the State Council.

11. (1) It shall be the general duty of the State Council to co-ordinate and determine standards in institutions of higher education or research and scientific and technical institutions in accordance with the guidelines issued by the University Grants Commission from time to time.

(2) The functions of the Council shall include—

(1) Planning and co-ordination—

- (a) to prepare consolidated programmes in the sphere of higher education in the State, keeping in view the guidelines that may be issued by the University Grants Commission from time to time, and to assist in their implementation, bearing in mind the overall priorities and perspectives of higher education in the State;
- (b) to co-operate with the University Grants Commission in respect of determination and maintenance of standards of higher education and suggest remedial action, wherever necessary;
- (c) to evolve perspective plans for development of higher education in the State;
- (d) to forward the developmental programmes of Universities and colleges in the State to the University Grants Commission along with its comments and recommendations;
- (e) to monitor the progress of implementations of such developmental programmes;
- (f) to promote co-operation and co-ordination of the educational institutions among themselves and explore the scope for interaction with industry and other related establishments;
- (g) to formulate the principles as per the guidelines of the Government and the University Grants Commission for starting new educational institutions, keeping in view the various norms and requirements to be fulfilled;
- (h) to suggest ways and means of mending additional resources for education in the State;
- (i) to work in liaison with the All India Council for Technical Education, Indian Council of Agricultural Research and other national level apex bodies or authorities on higher education in different areas of higher education.

(2) Academic functions—

- (a) to encourage and promote innovations in curricular development, restructuring of courses and updating of syllabi in the Universities and the colleges;
- (b) to devise methods and steps to improve the standards of examinations conducted by the Universities and suggest necessary reforms;
- (c) to facilitate training of Teachers in Colleges and Universities;
- (d) to develop programmes for greater academic co-operation and interaction between University Teachers and college Teachers and to facilitate mobility of students and Teachers within and outside the State;
- (e) to conduct entrance examination for admission to institutions of higher education and render advice on admissions;
- (f) to encourage sports, games, physical education and cultural activities in the Universities and colleges;
- (h) to encourage extension activities and promote interaction with agencies concerned with regional planning and development of higher education;
- (i) to prepare an overview report on the working of the Universities and the colleges in the State and to furnish a copy of the report to the University Grants Commission and the Government;

The West Bengal State Council of Higher Education Act, 1994.

(Sections 12-14.)

- (j) to perform such other function as may be prescribed for promoting excellence in higher education and scientific research.
- (3) Advisory functions—
- (a) to advise the Government—
- (i) in determining the block maintenance grants and in laying down the basis for such grants;
  - (ii) on setting up a State Research Board so as to link research work of educational institutions with that of the research agencies and industry, keeping in view the overall research needs of the State;
  - (iii) regarding improvement on the laws relating to the Universities including laws relating to the establishments of new Universities;
  - (iv) on the policy of "earning while learning";
  - (v) towards performing any other functions necessary for the furtherance of higher education in the State;
- (b) to advise the Universities to make new Statutes, Ordinances or Regulations on the basis of the respective University Act or to amend the existing Statutes, Ordinances or Regulations, where necessary, keeping in view the various norms and requirements to be fulfilled.

Fund of the State Council.

12. (1) The State Council shall have its own Fund to be called the West Bengal State Council of Higher Education Fund (hereinafter referred to as the Fund) consisting of the grants from the Government, grants received from the Central Government for higher education and such other funds as may be received by the State Council from any other source.

(2) The Government may pay to the State Council in each financial year such sum as may be considered by the Government to be necessary for the functioning of the State Council.

(3) All money belonging to the Fund and all receipts of the State Council shall be deposited or invested in such manner as may be prescribed.

(4) The State Council may spend such sums as it may think fit for performing its functions under this Act, and such sums shall be treated as expenditure payable out of the Fund of the State Council.

Release of grants in aid to the Universities, institutions, etc.

13. (1) It shall be the duty of the State Council to allocate grants to different Universities and degree colleges in the State from out of the fund received by it under sub-section (1) of section 12 and release the same to the concerned Universities and colleges.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, the State Council shall have the right to cause an enquiry to be made by such person or persons as it may consider necessary into the grants made by it to a University or a college or into any expenditure made thereof after giving previous notice to such University or college, as the case may be, of its intention to cause such enquiry.

Annual financial statement.

14. (1) The State Council shall prepare an annual financial statement on or before such date as may be prescribed, of the estimated capital and revenue receipts and expenditure for the ensuing year and submit the same to the Government.

(2) The statement as aforesaid shall include a statement of salaries and allowances of members, officers and employees of the State Council and of such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) The Government shall, as soon as may be after the receipt of such statement, cause it to be laid before the the State Legislature.

(4) The State Council shall take into consideration any observations made on such statement in the State Legislature.

The West Bengal State Council of Higher Education Act, 1994.

(Sections 15-19.)

(5) The State Council may, at any time during the year in respect of which a statement under sub-section (1) has been submitted, submit to the Government a supplementary statement, and the provisions of this section shall apply to such supplementary statement as they apply to the statement under sub-section (1).

Annual report.

15. The State Council shall prepare once in every year, in such form and at such time as may be prescribed, an annual report giving a true and full account of its activities during the previous year, and copies thereof shall be forwarded to the Government, and the Government shall cause the same to be laid before the State Legislature. A copy of the report shall also be sent to the University Grants Commission.

Accounts and Audit.

16. (1) The State Council shall cause to be maintained such books of account and other books in relation to its accounts in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) The State Council shall, as soon as may be after closing its annual accounts, prepare a statement of accounts in such form, and forward the same to the Government by such date, as the Government may determine.

(3) The accounts of the State Council shall be audited by such authority, at such times, and in such manner, as may be prescribed.

(4) The annual accounts of the State Council together with the audit report thereon shall be forwarded to the Government and the Government shall cause the same to be laid before the State Legislature, and shall also forward a copy of the audit report to the State Council for taking appropriate action on the matters arising out of the audit report.

Directions by the Government.

17. (1) In the discharge of its functions under this Act, the State Council shall be guided by such directions on questions of policy relating to State purposes or in case of any emergency as may be given to it by the Government.

(2) If any dispute arises between the Government and the State Council as to whether a question is or is not a question of policy relating to State purposes or whether an emergency has arisen, the decision of the Government thereon shall be final.

Returns and information.

18. (1) The State Council shall furnish to the Government such return or other information with respect to its property or activities as the Government may from time to time require.

(2) The State Council shall be competent to seek such returns, reports and information from any University or college as it may consider necessary for the performance of its functions.

Inspection and enquiry.

19. (1) The Government shall have the right to cause an inspection to be made by an officer, not below the rank of Joint Secretary to the Government, authorised by it, of the State Council and also to cause an inquiry to be made into the work done by the State Council in respect of any matter entrusted to it. The Government shall in every case give notice to the State Council of its intention to cause such inspection or inquiry to be made and the State Council shall be entitled to be represented thereat. The officer making the inspection or inquiry shall inform the Government of the results thereof.

(2) The Government shall communicate to the State Council its views with reference to the results of such inspection or inquiry and may advise the State Council on the action to be taken.

(3) The State Council shall, within such time as the Government may fix, report to it the action, if any, which is proposed to be taken, or has been taken, upon such advice.

(4) The Government may, where action has not been taken by the State Council within the time as aforesaid to its satisfaction, issue such directions as it may think fit, and the State Council shall comply with such directions.

The West Bengal State Council of Higher Education Act, 1994.

(Sections 20-23.)

Revision.

20. The Government may, either suo motu or on an application made to them, call for and examine the records of any order passed or decision taken by the State Council under the provisions of this Act, for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the legality or propriety of such order or decision or as to regularity of such procedure, and pass such order with respect thereto as it may think fit:

Provided that no such order shall be made except after giving the State Council or the person likely to be affected thereby a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

Power to make rules.

21. (1) The Government may, by notification, make rules for carrying out all or any of the purposes of this Act.

(2) Every rule made under this Act and every order made under section 23 shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be laid before the State Legislature and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the next session, the State Legislature makes any modification in any such rule or order, or the State Legislature decides that the rule or the order should not be made, the rule or the order shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or order.

Power to make regulations.

22. (1) The State Council may make regulations consistent with this Act and the rules made thereunder,—

- (a) regulating the meeting of the State Council and the procedure for conducting business thereat; and
- (b) regulating the manner in which and the purposes for which persons may be associated with the Council under section 8.

(2) No regulation shall be made under this section except with the previous approval of the Government.

Power to remove difficulties.

23. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Government may make such order, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as appears to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty.

By order of the Governor,

S. MATTRA,
Special Officer & ex officio
Jt. Secy. to the Govt. of West Bengal.
