Sub - Keeping the venue schools open for Teacher Eligibility Test (TET) exams and attendance of teaching & non-teaching staff of those schools.

In view of ensuing Teacher Eligibility Test (TET) Exams going to held on 16th August & 30th August 2015, I am directed to inform you that the authorities of all the venue schools are to be instructed to keep open their respective schools on 16th & 30th August, 2015 for conducting TET Exams 2015. Moreover, all the teaching & non-teaching staff of the concerned schools are also to be directed to attend school on those days following the time schedule of TET exam and perform the duties to be allotted by the concerned Centre-in-Charge positively.

In this connection, it is also noted that if the concerned Centre-in-Charge feels necessity of service of the teachers of neighbouring schools (Primary/Secondary), he/she may send a requisition to the Head of the neighbouring Institution who will in turn depute the teachers as per requisition. The allotted teacher will have to perform their duties in the allotted centres.

The D.I. of Schools (SE) and the D.I. of Schools (PE) are also requested to keep open their offices to extend all sorts of co-operation to the administration/concerned authorities on the date of TET Examination. They are further requested to communicate this memo to their sub-ordinate offices and Head of the Institutions to make sure the attendance of teachers on the date of TET Examinations as per allotted duties.

This is urgent.
