11. Report on the work of the previous year and plan for the works of the following year. – (1) The Panchayat Samiti shall prepare a report in Form 4 in the month of April every year showing the work done during the previous year and publish the same in the office of the Panchayat Samiti along with a list of beneficiaries for information of the public in general.

(2) The report under Form 27 as referred to in West Bengal Panchayat (Zilla Parishad and Panchayat Samiti) Accounts and Financial Rules, 2003 alongwith report under sub-rule (1) shall be placed in a meeting of the Panchayat Samiti by the month of May every year and also in the annual meeting of Block Sansad.

(3) The Panchayat Samiti shall submit copy of the report as referred to in sub-rule (2) to the Executive Officer of Zilla Parishad.

(4) As soon as possible after the first meeting following the general elections to the Panchayat, it shall prepare a perspective plan for five years or for such unexpired term of the office of the existing members as may be available. Such perspective plan shall be prepared with the object to address the need-based demands raised or perceived in the area under its jurisdiction for integrated socio-economic development by way of implementation of programmes and schemes envisaged in it in successive annual phases generating a sustaining effect and for such preparation and also for prioritisation of different sectoral activities, views and suggestions of the Gram Panchayats within its jurisdiction shall be obtained and taken into consideration.

(5) The Panchayat Samiti shall prepare an annual plan, in the month of January of the preceding year. For this purpose the Panchayat Samiti shall request the Gram Panchayat within its jurisdiction to forward the works and schemes, which they consider necessary for their area but are unable to undertake due to financial or technical constraint. The draft annual plan shall also be placed in the half-yearly meeting of Block Sansad.

(6) After taking into consideration the proposals received from the Gram Panchayats alongwith proposals worked out at the level of Panchayat Samiti, the Panchayat Samiti shall prepare the annual plan and circulate it to all Gram Panchayats for their views and suggestions and display it in the office notice board and at three other prominent places within its area.

(7) The Panchayat Samiti shall consider the recommendations and suggestions, if any, of the Gram Panchayats, public in general and of the Block Sansad and revise the plan accordingly for final adoption.

(8) The Panchayat Samiti shall adopt the revised plan by a resolution in a meeting, specially convened for this purpose and forward a copy to the Executive Officer of the Zilla Parishad by the 15th day of February every year for information. On the basis of the revised plan, the Panchayat Samiti may also revise the budget estimate for the year in question either at the initial stage if the budget is not approved or otherwise by preparation of supplementary and revised budget estimate.

Chapter – VI

Meetings of Panchayat Samiti

12. Place of meeting. – All meetings of Panchayat Samiti shall be held in the office of the Panchayat Samiti.

13. Preparation of list of business. – The list of business to be transacted at every meeting of the Panchayat Samiti, except at an adjourned meeting, shall be prepared by the Secretary in consultation with the Executive Officer and the Sabhapati, or in his absence the Sahakari Sabhapati and shall be entered in the book of agenda to be maintained for the purpose and shall be countersigned by the Sabhapati or the Sahakari Sabhapati as the case may be.

14. Notice of meeting. - (1) (a) At least seven days' notice with the list of business to be transacted at every meeting, except an emergent meeting or a requisitioned meeting of the Panchayat Samiti, shall be sent to all members in Form 1.

(b) An emergent meeting may be called after giving at least three days' notice to the members in Form 1A.

(c) A requisitioned meeting may be called by the Sabhapati in Form 1B or by the requisitionist members in Form 1C, as the case may be, by giving clear seven days' notice in either case.

(2) A copy of the outline budget or the draft budget, as the case may be, of the Panchayat Samiti, when required to be considered at a meeting of the Panchayat Samiti specially convened for the purpose, shall be enclosed with the notice for such meeting.

(3) When the Sabhapati is required to convene a requisitioned meeting in terms of the second proviso to sub section (1) of section 105 the Sabhapati may do so, by issuing notices under his signature or, with his written consent, under the signature of the Secretary when the Sabhapati shall remain responsible for the notices or any defect therein. Such notices shall be issued at least seven days before the date of the meeting, which shall be held within fifteen days from the date of receipt of such requisition by the Sabhapati.

(4) There shall be no meeting with agenda for removal of more than one office bearer in a Panchayat Samiti and any such notice issued in this behalf shall be void ab-initio.

(5) In a Panchayat Samiti not more than one general body meeting shall be held on a single calendar day. Any notice convening more than one general body meeting on a single calendar day shall be void ab-initio. If more than one notice is issued for convening separate meetings on the same day, only the notice, which is issued first, shall be valid.

15. Manner of service of Notice. – (1) The notice for a general meeting, an emergent meeting and an adjourned meeting shall be signed and sent by the Secretary to all the members of the Panchayat Samiti. The notice for an ordinary meeting or an adjourned meeting or a meeting for the consideration of the budget or a meeting for the consideration of the audit reports may be sent by post under certificate of posting or by special messenger and that of an emergent meeting shall be sent by special messenger only. The notice for a requisitioned meeting shall be sent by registered post with acknowledgement due by the Sabhapati or, with his written consent, by the Secretary or by the requisitionist members, as the case may be:

Provided that the messenger, as and when required, shall deliver the notice to the member to whom it is addressed normally at his residence. In the absence of the member, the notice may be delivered to an adult member of his family residing with him. The messenger shall obtain the signature of the member or the adult member of his family residing with him as the case may be, in the office copy of the notice as a token of receipt thereof. If the member is absent and there is no other adult member of his family to whom the notice may be delivered, it shall be served by affixing on the outer door or some other conspicuous part of the house of the member in the presence of not less than two witnesses. The service return containing the signature of witnesses during such service shall be attached to the office copy of the notice along with a brief note of the entire procedure by the Secretary or in his absence by any other employee authorised by the Sabhapati:

Provided further that in absence of Secretary the notices shall be signed by any other officer of the Panchayat Samiti as may be authorised by the Sabhapati in consultation with the Executive Officer of the Panchayat Samiti or when no officer is present or is capable to act as such for any reason whatsoever, by the Sabhapati himself.

(2) One copy of the notice for every meeting shall be displayed on the notice board of the Panchayat Samiti as soon as the process referred to for service begins.

(3) When notices convening any meeting have been put to service, such meeting shall not be cancelled by the Sabhapati or any other authority for any reason or under any circumstances except under the direction of a competent Court of law.

16. Verification of service return of the notice of meeting. - On the date of meeting the Sabhapati, or the Sahakari Sabhapati or the presiding member, as the case may be, shall verify the service returns of the notice of the meeting and on being satisfied that the notice has been duly served on all members, the business of the meeting shall be taken up by him. If the notice is not served on any of the members following the provisions of rule 14 and 15, the meeting shall be discontinued forthwith on the ground that it is not validly convened and shall be held afresh on another date to be fixed by the Sabhapati and for such meeting a fresh notice of seven days shall be served on all members in Form 3 when the list of business for the meeting may or may not be changed.

17. Attendance Register cum Minutes Book of meeting. – (1) An Attendance Register cum Minutes Book in Form 2 shall be maintained by the Secretary of the Panchayat Samiti wherein every member shall sign his name or put his left thumb impression in presence of the presiding member who shall thereafter attest the same.

(2) Minutes of the meeting shall be entered in the same Attendance Register cum Minutes Book and shall be read out before the meeting is concluded. The person who presides over the meeting shall thereafter put his signature below the minutes recorded.

(3) In case of a requisitioned meeting every member attending the meeting shall sign his name or put his thumb impression either in the Attendance Register - cum – Minutes Book or when the Attendance Register cum Minutes Book is not available, on a plain sheet of paper. In the latter case, proceedings of the meeting shall also be recorded on sheets of plain paper.

18. Adjournment of meeting for want of quorum. - If within one hour from the time appointed for holding a meeting of a Panchayat Samiti quorum is not formed, the meeting shall be adjourned and shall be held on the seventh day thereafter at the same place and the same hour when unless provided otherwise in any law for the time being in force, no quorum shall be necessary. The members shall, however, be additionally informed of the date, place and time of the adjourned meeting by a fresh notice in Form 3. The list of business for transaction at the original meeting shall remain unchanged for the adjourned meeting:

Provided that when quorum is needed for a meeting, such quorum shall be ascertained at the commencement of the meeting and once quorum is reached it shall be valid for the entire meeting.

19. Note to be kept for want of quorum. - When a meeting of a Panchayat Samiti is not held for want of a quorum, the Sabhapati and in his absence the Sahakari Sabhapati and in absence of both, the Secretary of the Panchayat Samiti shall make a note to the effect in the Attendance Register cum Minutes Book referred to in rule 17.

20. Resolutions pressed for division. – If there is difference of opinion on any resolution, it shall be put to vote. Every resolution supported by the majority members shall be recorded clearly in the Attendance Register cum Minutes Book together with the names of members voting for or against the resolution. Dissenting opinion, if any, shall also be recorded therein along with the name of the member.

21. Manner of voting. – When any issue is put to vote, the presiding member shall decide the manner in which the members shall cast their votes:

Provided that for all resolutions including any resolution for removal of an office bearer, the vote shall be cast by the members without any secrecy so that the members may know on which side a vote is cast.

22. Voting by Proxy Prohibited. – No vote shall be given by proxy and no member shall vote if he is absent in person at the time of voting.

23. Decision by majority of votes. – All questions at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present and voting. The presiding member shall have a second or casting vote in case of an equality of votes:

Provided that in case of any proposal for removal of a Sabhapati or Sahakari Sabhapati in a meeting including a requisitioned meeting, the presiding member shall have no casting vote.

24. Language in which minutes are to be recorded. – The minutes of the proceedings of a meeting shall be recorded either in Bengali or in Nepali or in English or in Urdu as may be decided by the majority members.

25. Person responsible to record the minutes. - The proceedings of a meeting shall be recorded by the Secretary or in his absence, by such other employee as may be authorised by the presiding member in this behalf :

Provided that in case of a requisitioned meeting, proceedings of the meeting shall be recorded by a member as may be selected by the member presiding over such meeting if the Secretary or any other employee is not available for the purpose.

26. Rules of business. – (1) Every general meeting of the Panchayat Samiti shall commence with a statement of actions taken on the proceedings of last general meeting by the person presiding over the meeting or any other person authorised by him.

(2) Proceedings of the meetings of the Sthayee Samitis held after the last general meeting shall be ratified in the next meeting of the Panchayat Samiti. For this purpose Karmadhyaksha of the Sthayee Samiti or in his absence any member of that Sthayee Samiti shall present a statement of actions taken on the proceedings of meetings of Sthayee Samitis held after last general meeting, with explanation, if necessary. Such statement shall be prepared, in consultation with the Karmadhyaksha, by the Secretary of the Sthayee Samiti or, if he is unable to do so for any reason whatsoever, by any other member of the Sthayee Samiti or any employee of the Panchayat Samiti as may be authorised by the Sthayee Samiti in a meeting.

(3) A meeting shall generally be conducted in pursuance of the list of business appearing in the notice for the meeting:

Provided that if a member puts up in writing at least two days before such meeting, a proposal for discussion on an issue and if the Sabhapati considers such discussion necessary and expedient in the interest of the Panchayat Samiti, he may allow such issue to be raised for discussion in the meeting:

Provided further that if during the meeting, any member proposes to raise an issue for discussion and majority of the members present support the proposal, the Sabhapati or in his absence, the member presiding over the meeting, shall allow discussions to be held on such issue.

(4) A copy of the minutes of the meeting shall be supplied by the Executive Officer to any member who may apply for it.

Chapter – VII

Powers, functions and duties of Sthayee Samiti

27. Powers of Sthayee Samiti. – (1) Subject to such direction, general or special, as may be issued by the State Government from time to time, every Sthayee Samiti shall exercise such powers and perform such functions of the Panchayat Samiti in relation to the subjects assigned to it under rule 31 within the limits of its financial authority as may be decided by the Panchayat Samiti in a meeting convened with specific agenda for this purpose. The Sthayee Samiti shall also be responsible for the implementation of the programmes and schemes of the Panchayat Samiti and also those assigned to or devolved upon it by different departments of the State Government relating to the subjects enumerated in rule 31.

(2) In order to achieve a co-ordinated approach, a Sthayee Samiti shall perform its functions on maintaining close liaison with the Upa-Samiti concerned of the Gram Panchayat and, when necessary, with the Gram Unnayan Samiti having interest in such functions, and for this purpose, may invite Sanchalak of such Upa-Samiti and any other person to attend any of its meeting.

(3) When an item of expenditure required to be incurred for implementation of a programme or scheme, exceeds the maximum limits of the financial authority of a Sthayee Samiti, it shall deliberate upon the issue and place it with its proposed plan of action and the fund required to the Artha Sanstha Unnayan O Parikalpana Sthayee Samiti for a decision and it shall implement the said programme or scheme in conformity with the decision of the Artha Sanstha Unnayan O Parikalpana Sthayee Samiti.

(4) If the Artha Sanstha Unnayan O Parikalpana Sthayee Samiti considers that the proposal of the Sthayee Samiti referred to in sub-rule (3) is not acceptable or implementable under the provision of the Act or any rule, order or direction framed thereunder or the item of expenditure exceeds the maximum limit of its authority, the matter shall be referred to the Panchayat Samiti for a decision in its next meeting. The decision of the Panchayat Samiti in that case shall be final.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions contained in rule 77 of the West Bengal Panchayat (Zilla Parishad and Panchayat Samiti) Accounts and Finance Rules 2003 or in sub-rule (3), when actual expenditure for a project scheme exceeds ten per cent of the approved budget estimate, the Sthayee Samiti concerned may complete the project or scheme under intimation to Artha Sanstha Unnayan O Parikalpana Sthayee Samiti when the latter shall in due course take steps to incorporate the same in the revised and supplementary budget thereof.

(6) In case of any doubt as to whether a particular scheme or work comes within the ambit of the subjects assigned to a Sthayee Samiti or in case of difference of opinion on this point between two or more Sthayee Samitis, the matter shall be referred to the Artha Sanstha Unnayan O Parikalpana Sthayee Samiti for decision in a meeting.

(7) Every Sthayee Samiti shall prepare a quarterly report on physical and financial progress of work relating to the projects or schemes dealt with by the Sthayee Samiti in Form 7. Such report shall be placed as early as possible in the meeting of the Panchayat Samiti through the Artha, Sanstha, Unnayan O Parikalpana Sthayee Samiti with such additional date or information as may be deemed necessary in view of the specific nature of a scheme.

(8) The Secretary of the Sthayee Samiti shall forward the copy of the proceedings of every meeting of the Sthayee Samiti to the Executive Officer who shall bring it to the notice of the Sabhapati and place it in the next meeting of the Panchayat Samiti for ratification.

28. Function of Sthayee Samiti in respect of subject or scheme devolved or assigned to Panchayat Samiti for execution by the State Government. – (1) As soon as any subject or scheme is devolved upon or assigned to a Panchayat Samiti by any Department of the State Government or by any other authority, the Panchayat Samiti shall identify the appropriate Sthayee Samiti and advise it to draw detailed plan for appropriate measures on the subject or for execution of the scheme. While forwarding the scheme the Panchayat Samiti may issue suitable direction to the Sthayee Samiti about the manner in which the plan for its execution shall be drawn up. The Sthayee Samiti shall cause the requisite plan and estimate of the scheme prepared by the appropriate Block level officer for deliberation, modification, if necessary, and approval.

(2) The Sthayee Samiti shall then proceed to execute the scheme on the basis of the accepted plan and estimate following the provisions under rule 27.

29. Function of Sthayee Samiti in respect of execution of schemes out of own resources of the Panchayat Samiti. – On approval of any scheme by the Panchayat Samiti for its execution out of the fund mobilized through its own resources, the Sthayee Samiti concerned, subject to the provisions of rule 27, shall, in conformity with the direction of the Panchayat Samiti, if any, deliberate upon it and cause the plan and estimate of the same prepared by the appropriate Block level officer. The Sthayee Samiti shall then consider, modify, if necessary, and approve the scheme and cause execution thereof with the help of the concerned Block level officer.

30. Annual action Plan and Budget of Sthayee Samiti. – With the object of achieving economic development and ensuring social justice for all and keeping in view the major thrust of action projected by a Panchayat Samiti in consonance with the demands and suggestions of the Block Sansad as also the Gram Panchayats within its jurisdiction, every Sthayee Samiti shall assess the felt-need of the people of the area together with availability of the local resources both physical and financial and thereafter dovetail and integrate them with the schemes, programmes and grants sponsored or made by different authorities and prepare an annual action plan encompassing its functional areas. Such annual action plan of all the Sthayee Samitis for the following year prepared in the aforesaid manner shall be the basis of the annual action plan of the Panchayat Samiti.

Note. - If arrangement for lighting is made by some other local authority, Panchayat Samiti shall not impose or collect any rate.

Chapter – XII

Control of building operations in Panchayat area under Development Authority

64. Construction of building or structure in Panchayat area under Development Authority. - (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing rules or in the West Bengal Panchayat (Gram Panchayat Administration) Rules, 2004, when any area of a Panchayat Samiti comprises, wholly or in part, the area under the Kolkata Metropolitan Development Authority or under any other Development Authority in terms of the provisions of the West Bengal Town and Country (Planning and Development) Act, 1979 (West Ben. Act XIII of 1979) (hereinafter in this chapter collectively referred to as the Development Authority) or an area for which a Development Plan (referred to as the Development Plan hereinafter in this Chapter) has been published and is in force under the provisions of section 114A, such area shall be deemed to be an area of a Development Authority and erection or construction of any structure or building within such area shall be governed by the related Act as aforesaid and any rule framed thereunder or any order or direction of a competent authority in terms of the related Act and without prejudice to the generality of the aforesaid provision, shall be regulated by the rules contained in this chapter.

65. Permission for construction of building or structure. - (1) Any person intending to erect a new structure or building or to make any addition to any existing structure or building pertaining to the area of any Development Authority, shall make an application in triplicate in Form 4A to the Panchayat Samiti or any authority, person or persons as may be empowered by the Panchayat Samiti in this behalf (collectively referred to as the Panchayat Samiti hereinafter in this Chapter) and deliver it to any of its employee as may be authorised in this behalf who shall receive the application in triplicate, retain two copies and return the other copy noting thereon the date of receipt under his signature and the seal of the Panchayat Samiti or of the Development Authority.

(2) An application referred to in sub-rule (1), shall be accompanied by a plan of the proposed structure or building in triplicate and a site plan in triplicate prepared and authenticated by a competent technical person as referred to in sub-rule (3), copy of records of right and copy of such other records showing title and interest of the applicant in respect of the land as also character of the land as may be necessary:

Provided that one copy of the building plan and the site plan shall be blue-printed.

(3) A building plan or a site plan referred to in sub-rule (2), shall be prepared and authenticated by a Licensed Building Surveyor having a degree or a diploma in Civil Engineering or Architecture or by an Architect:

Provided that the eligibility of a Licensed Building Surveyor or an Architect to authenticate a site plan or a building plan shall be determined in the manner as follows:-

Qualification	Nature of building
(a) Draughtsman (Civil)	Residential building upto the height of four metres
(b) Licensed Building Surveyor having Diploma in Civil Engineering	Residential building upto the height of eleven metres

- | | | |
|-----|------------------------------------|--|
| (c) | Degree holder on Civil Engineering | Residential building upto the height of fifteen metres |
| (d) | Architect | All buildings, residential, commercial or institutional: |

Provided that on such occasions as the Panchayat Samiti may deem fit, authentication additionally by a Structural Engineer or a Geo-technical Engineer or both may be required for planning, design and construction of building:

Provided further that such a technically qualified person shall either be empanelled or registered with any Municipality or Municipal Corporation within West Bengal:

Provided also that any such technical officer authenticating the plans shall certify to the effect that the site has been personally inspected while planning the building and planning the structural members and that the building plan and the site plan do not infringe any provision of the Development plan published for the area and has taken into account the stability analysis as also soil tests performed and shall then tender his signature quoting his licence or empanelment number or registration number.

(4) Copies of Form 4A shall be supplied on demand by the Panchayat Samiti to any intending applicant at a non-profit making price to be fixed by the Artha Sanstha Unnayan O Parikalpana Sthayee Samiti of the Panchayat Samiti concerned:

Provided that any correct copy of Form 4A in manuscript, typewritten or otherwise mechanically prepared, shall be accepted by the Panchayat Samiti for the purpose of sub-rule (1).

66. Payment of fees. - (1) No application shall be considered by a Panchayat Samiti unless such application is accompanied by a receipt of the fees paid to the Panchayat Samiti by the applicant at such rate as may be commensurate with the rates shown in the Table under these rules. An employee of the Panchayat Samiti as may be authorised in this behalf, shall receive the fee to be tendered in cash and shall immediately grant a formal receipt thereof.

(2) The fee so received from the applicant under sub-rule (1) are not be refundable under any circumstances.

67. Exemption from payment of fee. - (1) For the purpose of obtaining permission of the Panchayat Samiti for erection of any thatched structure, tin shed or tile shed, without brick wall, covering an area not exceeding eighteen square metres, where such structure or shed does not cover more than three-fourth of the total area of the land including the land appurtenant thereto, it shall not be necessary for the applicant to pay any fee referred to in rule 66 and a hand-drawn sketch-map in duplicate instead of the plan and the site-plan referred to in sub-rule (2) of rule 65, along with the copy of records of right and other requisite documents may be submitted along with the application in Form 4A.

Provided that no permission shall be required for construction of house for the persons belonging to the economically weaker section under any poverty alleviation programme sponsored by the Government of India or the State Government:

Provided further that the implementing agency for the aforesaid construction shall intimate the Panchayat Samiti of such construction mentioning its site.

(2) Permission of the Panchayat Samiti shall not be necessary for repair of an existing structure or building unless -

- (a) any structural change is involved, or
- (ii) such repair brings any change in the existing covered area, or
- (iii) such repair includes any addition of a projection from the existing structure or building at ground level or upper level .

(3) Permission of a Panchayat Samiti shall not be necessary for erection of a boundary wall not exceeding the height of one and one-half metres unless it is made of brick and cement or unless the bounded area is not kept as vacant land but is used or likely to be used as stack yard or for any commercial or institutional purpose either as an open space or by erecting temporary shed.

68. Construction proposal to pre-suppose civic amenities. - (1) A plan for new structure or building within the jurisdiction of a Panchayat Samiti shall have reasonable provision for, -

- (i) adequate drainage facility by means of access and passage leading to existing public drains or drainage channels or by means of soak-pit having adequate capacity,
- (j) sanitary facilities including garbage disposal facility, and

(k) access road or passage to the plot as referred to in rule 69.

(2) If a Panchayat Samiti is of the opinion that for the purpose of proper sanitation in a locality, any premises should have its drainage facility through a private drain owned by another plot-holder, the Panchayat Samiti may, by a written notice to such plot-holder as also other users of such private drain, require -

- (i) the owner of the plot-holder to allow the owner of the premises to connect his house drain with such private drain, and
- (ii) the owner of such private drain to permit the waste water of the house drain to empty in the private drain.

(3) When a connection is made under sub-rule (2), maintenance, repair and clearing of the private drain from the point of such connection up to the public drain shall be the joint responsibility of the owners of such premises and the users of the private drain and the related expenditure may be borne by such owners and the users in such proportion as may be mutually agreed upon. If any dispute arises between the owners and the users in the discharge of the joint responsibilities or in bearing share of such expenditure, it shall be referred to the Panchayat Samiti and its decision in this respect shall be final and binding.

Explanation. - For the purpose of this rule, “public drain” means a drain maintained by the Central Government, the State Government or any local authority where the owner or the occupier of a building or land may cause his drains to empty.

69. Approach road or passage for building. – (1) Every structure or building shall have an approach road or passage for ingress or egress from or to a public road and the minimum width of such passage or road shall be one metre and eighty centimetres.

(2) If an existing passage or road over which the public have a right of way, is less than one metre and eighty centimetres wide, the plot-holders on either side of such passage or road shall keep a front set-back in such manner as to allow a clear front set-back of ninety centimetres for the buildings on either side of the road after leaving in the middle a clear passage of one metre and eighty centimetres:

Provided that if a Panchayat Samiti is of the opinion that an existing building or part thereof should have set-back to allow a regular passage or road of not less than one metre and eighty centimetres in pursuance of a Development Plan, the Panchayat Samiti, after giving the owner of such building an opportunity of being heard, may refer a proposal through the District Panchayat and Rural Development Officer to the Land Acquisition Collector for acquisition of the land in question:

Provided further that when the plot-holders on either side of an approach passage or road allow front set-back in such manner that on leaving a front set-back of ninety centimetres in front of each house along the passage, a continuous width of five metres for the passage or road is obtained, such passage or road may be taken over and maintained by the Panchayat Samiti:

Provided also that every structure or building shall have a rear set-back of one metre and eighty centimetres with a set-back of at least ninety centimetres from each side of the plot.

(3) Whenever there is a service road or approach passage available, no direct access from a building shall be permitted to a public road.

Explanation - For the purpose of this rule, 'public road' means a National Highway referred to in the National Highway Act, 1956 (48 of 1956) or a Highway within the meaning of the West Bengal Highway Act, 1964 (West Ben. Act XXVIII of 1964) or a road maintained by the Zilla Parishad or any other road normally used for vehicular traffic.

70. Restriction on construction over tank and water body. – (1) A Panchayat Samiti shall not give permission to any erection or construction by filling up any tank, pond, or other water body, marshy land or abandoned brickfield or sand quarry, coal mine, mineral quarry or any other water area and shall take such steps as may be considered appropriate-

- (a) for use of public water body for community benefit, or
- (b) for improved drainage facility in the locality, or
- (c) for fire fighting purposes, or
- (d) from environmental and ecological point of view, or
- (e) for promotion of pisciculture, or
- (f) for any other use of public interest, or
- (g) for recreational purpose, or
- (h) for growth of micro and macro organism, or
- (i) for production of aquatic flora and fauna, or
- (j) for any two or more of any such purposes:

Provided that in pursuance of any direction or order issued by any Court or a competent authority, a Panchayat Samiti may, for reasons to be recorded in a resolution adopted in this behalf, give permission, under special circumstances for erection or construction on any such water body.

(2) In case of illegal filling of any tank, pond or other water body, marshy land or abandoned brick field or sandy quarry, coal mine, mineral quarry or any other water area, the Panchayat Samiti shall immediately report the matter to the Sub-divisional Officer having jurisdiction and to the concerned Police Station for taking appropriate action.

71. Maximum coverage of residential building. - The maximum building coverage of an individual plot solely for residential purposes, shall be two-third of the total area for a residential building. One-third of the total plot area that shall be kept vacant shall include front, side and rear setback spaces. The Panchayat Samiti shall refuse all such applications for permission of any addition to an existing structure or building if the existing coverage added with the proposed addition exceeds two-third of the total plot area:

Provided that the Panchayat Samiti may, in pursuance of the Development Plan, limit, by an order, the maximum building coverage upto one-half of the total area of the plot.

72. Construction of residential building. - (1) Subject to the Development Plan published by a Development Authority, any structure or a building within the jurisdiction of a Panchayat Samiti shall be erected or constructed with a set-back of at least ninety centimetres from each side of the plot. In doing so, there shall be a minimum perpendicular distance of one metre and eighty centimetres from the side of any proposed new building to the side of an existing building.

(2) The plinth or any part of a building or any accessory building shall be located with respect to the level of the crest of the road or passage in such a manner as to facilitate easy drainage and in all cases it shall be at a height of not less than sixty centimetres.

(3) Subject to the maximum height of fifteen metres, the height of a new or existing structure shall be one and half times the width of the approach road added with the width of the front set-back of that building. But no set-back in the building itself shall be taken into account for computing the height admissible:

Provided that the maximum height of the building shall be measured upto the highest point of the building whether flat roof or sloped roof:

Provided further that such measurement shall not include (i) roof tanks and their supports, (ii) chimneys, (iii) parapet walls not exceeding one and one-half metres in height and (iv) ventilating, air-conditioning and other service equipments:

Provided also that the maximum height of a building may be allowed to exceed fifteen metres if the Development Plan permits such higher height.

(4) The height of a new building or any other structure or any addition to an existing building or structure in the vicinity of an airport or any other prohibited area or any microwave tower erected for telecommunication purpose, shall be regulated in such manner as may be laid down, by order, by a competent authority in this behalf.

(5) The area of a habitable room shall be not less than six square metres with a minimum width of two and one-fifth metres.

(6) The area of kitchen shall be not less than three square metres with a minimum width of one and half metres.

(7) The area of an independent water-closet or any independent bathroom shall be not less than eight-tenth square metre with a minimum width of seventeen-twentieth metre; if a water-closet is combined with bathroom, its floor area shall not be less than one and a half square metres with a minimum width of nine-tenth metre.

Provided that every bathroom or water-closet shall be so situated that at least one of its wall shall be open to external air and shall have an opening in the form of window or ventilator not less than thirty-seven-hundredth square meter in area.

(8) The height of all habitable and multipurpose rooms shall not be less than two and three-fourth metres from the surface of the floor to the lowest point of the ceiling; the height of the kitchen, water-closet, bathroom, corridor or passage shall not be less than two and one-tenth metres from the surface of the floor to the lowest point of the ceiling.

(9) A loft may be allowed in a building which may cover not more than twenty-five per cent of the area of the floor of a room other than a habitable room; eighty per cent of the area of any corridor may be covered by a loft. Maximum height between the floor of any loft and ceiling shall be one and one-fifth metres and the clear height below the loft shall be not less than two and one-tenth meters.

(10) A Panchayat Samiti shall not accord permission for erection or construction of a dry latrine either in an existing building or as a part of a new construction and shall not accord such permission if there does not exist or there is no provision for, as the case may be, sanitary latrine of any classification.

(11) Outer wall of a building shall have a thickness of not less than twenty centimetres and load bearing wall shall have a thickness of not less than twenty-five centimetres.

(12) Boundary wall of a residential building shall have a height of not more than one and one-half metres and subject to such direction as may be issued by the Panchayat Samiti in pursuance of the Development Plan or any other law for the time being in force in this behalf, in case of an institutional or commercial building, such height shall be not more than three metres.

(13)(a) In a building having more than one storey, there shall be a staircase having a width of not less than one metre in every flight and shall have treads not less than twenty five centimetres in width and not more than eighteen centimetres in rise without winders with landings of width not less than that of the staircase. The tread and rise of each flight of stairs in such staircase shall be of uniform width and height.

(b) Minimum clear head room in each staircase shall be two metres and twenty-five centimetres as measured from the top of the rise to the lowest position of the ceiling or beam perpendicularly above it.

(c) Every staircase shall be adequately lighted and ventilated by windows of not less than one square metre in area per storey.

(2) Notwithstanding the aforesaid provisions, the Panchayat Samiti may issue any direction regulating width of the staircase, landing and rise of the tread and other matters relating to the staircase without prejudice to the general principles laid down in these rules.

Explanation – In this rule, “habitable room” means a room meant for human habitation other than a kitchen, bath, water-closet or storeroom.

73. Classification of land for construction. - If any structure or building is proposed to be erected or constructed on any land recorded otherwise than as homestead land, the Panchayat Samiti shall withhold permission for such erection or construction until the applicant produces an order allowing change of classification of the said land by the Collector or any other competent authority having jurisdiction under any law for the time being in force.

74. Manner of processing applications. - (1) On presentation of an application under sub-rule (1) of rule 65, subject to the provision under sub-rule (2), the Executive Officer or any other competent officer being so authorised in this behalf, shall examine the right, title and interest of the applicant in respect of the land on which the structure or the building is proposed to be erected along with the building plan and the site plan, and, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, shall within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of the application, place it before the Panchayat Samiti for granting or, as the case may be, refusing permission for the erection or construction applied for.

(2) When an application for construction of a new structure or building or making an addition to the existing structure or building having a plinth area of more than 300 sq. meter with brick or concrete footing or with a height of more than 6.5 meter is received at the office of the Panchayat Samiti, the Executive Officer shall send such application alongwith such observation as may be deemed fit, within a period of fifteen days from the date of such receipt along with the building plan and site plan to the Zilla Parishad having jurisdiction for necessary vetting or technical opinion as the case may be.

(3) In case of a proposal for construction of building within the height of 15 meter the Zilla Parishad shall, after examining or causing the examination of the building plan and site plan of the application, return it either with its vetting or objections to the Panchayat Samiti within a period of thirty days from the date of its receipt. The Executive Officer of the Panchayat Samiti shall thereafter place the application before the Panchayat Samiti for granting or, as the case may be, refusing permission for the erection or construction of structure or building or making addition to the existing structure or building as applied for.

(4) A Panchayat Samiti shall, when granting permission under sub-rule (1) or (3) specify a reasonable period which shall not be less than two years, within which the structure or the building is to be completed and if the erection or construction is not completed within the period so specified, such permission shall lapse when the Panchayat Samiti may allow an extension of such period on the basis of a prayer of the applicant. The Panchayat Samiti may, if it considers necessary in view of the changed circumstances, require a modification of the building plan for reasons to be recorded in writing at the time of extension of such period.

- (5) When a Panchayat Samiti refuses permission under sub-rule (1) or (3),
- (i) the applicant shall be given an opportunity of being heard;
 - (ii) the grounds for refusal shall be recorded in writing and communicated to the applicant;
 - (iii) the applicant may be allowed to submit modified proposal removing the grounds for refusal in a fresh application form or in a plain paper, as may be appropriate, with three copies of the modified building plan and other records as may be relevant, within a period of one year from the date of communication of such refusal; such proposal shall not be taken as a new proposal and the applicant shall not be required to deposit any further fee as referred to in rule 66.

(6) As soon as may be, after the Panchayat Samiti grants or refuses permission under sub-rule (1) or (3), the Executive Officer of the Panchayat Samiti or any other officer, so authorised in this behalf, shall communicate in writing to the applicant of the permission granted for the construction sought for or the refusal in this behalf, as the case may be. In case of permission, one approved copy of the building plan and of the site plan shall be returned to the applicant, and the date within which the erection or construction is to be completed, shall be communicated. In case of refusal, the applicant shall be informed of the grounds of refusal for further actions that may be taken by him in this regard.

(7) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (3), any communication to the applicant either according approval or refusing permission to the proposal of new construction or addition shall be made by the Panchayat Samiti within a period of ninety days from the date of receipt of the application under sub-rule (1) of rule 65.

75. Right of applicant if the permission or refusal is not communicated within time-limit. – (1) If permission or refusal under sub-rule (1) or (3) of rule 74, is not communicated by the Panchayat Samiti within the prescribed time limit it shall be presumed that the Panchayat Samiti has accorded such permission and it shall be lawful for the applicant to erect any structure or building conforming to the building plan and the site plan furnished by him along with the application :

Provided that before commencement of such work, the applicant shall give an intimation in this behalf to the Panchayat Samiti

76. Permission for construction of building for commercial or institutional purposes. – (1) The Panchayat Samiti shall not accord permission for erection of a structure or construction of a building for commercial or institutional purposes or for establishing a factory or workshop or warehouse or godown , -

- (a) in a predominantly residential area
- (b) on a road or an approach passage having a width measuring less than five metres.

(2) There shall be a front set-back of not less than one and one-fifth metres for a structure or building referred to in sub-rule (1).

(3) The maximum building coverage of a structure or building referred to in sub-rule (1) shall be one-half of the total plot area:

Provided that the Panchayat Samiti may accord permission for higher building coverage not exceeding three-fifth of the total plot area if it is not repugnant to the Development Plan or any law for the time being in force in this behalf.

(4) In the case of a proposed building on total land measuring between four thousand square metres, and twenty-five thousand square metres, the Panchayat Samiti shall be handed over management and control of not less than one-sixteenth of the total land as far as practicable on the front side of the building for accommodating public facilities like power sub-station, public transport terminal, garbage vat and such other facilities; for plots measuring more than twenty-five thousand square metres, the Panchayat Samiti shall be handed over one-tenth of the total land for such purposes.

(5) Subject to the provision of this rule, erection or construction of a building for commercial or institutional purposes, shall be governed by the rules applicable for construction of a building for residential purposes.

77. Grounds for withholding or refusing permission. – (1) A Panchayat Samiti may withhold or refuse permission under sub-rule (1) or (3) of rule 74, if, -

- (a) the site plan, building plan, elevation, section or specification contravenes any provision of the Act or any rule framed thereunder or any other law for the time being in force;
- (b) the application for permission does not contain required particulars or has not been prepared commensurate with the manner laid down in these rules;
- (c) any information or document required by the Panchayat Samiti under the Act or the rules thereunder has not been duly furnished;
- (d) the proposed structure or building or the activities for which such construction is proposed, shall or is likely to, disturb environmental sanitation of the locality;
- (e) the proposed structure or building is an encroachment on the Government land or any land vested with the Panchayat Samiti or any other local authority;
- (f) the proposed construction violates any provision or condition of the Development Plan.

(2) When a Panchayat Samiti takes a decision under sub-rule (1), the procedure laid down in sub-rules (5) of rule 74 shall, in so far as they are applicable, be followed.

78. Inspection of structure or building under construction. – (1) The Sabhapati, the Sahakari Sabhapati, the Executive Officer of Panchayat Samiti or any other person authorised by the Panchayat Samiti in this behalf, may, at any time and without notice, inspect any structure or building in respect of which permission under sub-rule (1) or (3) of rule 74 has been given, while the work is in progress.

(2) If, on making an inspection under sub-rule (1), the Sabhapati, the Sahakari Sabhapati, the Executive Officer of Panchayat Samiti or any other person so authorised is satisfied that the structure or building is being erected, -

- (a) otherwise than in accordance with the building plan as approved; or
- (b) in such way as to contravene any of the provisions of the Act or any rule framed thereunder or any provision of the Development Plan, the Executive Officer of Panchayat Samiti may, after giving the owner of such structure or building an opportunity of being heard, make an order directing the owner to make such alterations within such time as may be specified in the order, with the object of bringing the structure or building in conformity with the approved plan or the provisions of law or the Development Plan as the case may be.

(3) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 23 or any other law for the time being in force, the Executive Officer of Panchayat Samiti, in all cases where the erection or construction of any structure or building or any other work connected therewith has been commenced or is being carried on unlawfully, may, seek the assistance of the police or with the assistance of any employee of the Panchayat Samiti, if necessary, take such steps as he may deem fit to stop the continuance of such unlawful erection or construction. The expenditure incurred for deployment of police or employee of the Panchayat Samiti to keep a watch on the premises, shall be realized from the person undertaking the unlawful erection or construction on serving a notice of demand upon the owner of the plot or the person in charge of the construction, or if necessary, through the Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act, 1913.

79. Completion of work and occupancy certificate therefor – (1) On completion of construction of a building or execution of a work, the applicant referred to in rule 65, shall furnish a notice of completion to the Panchayat Samiti. In case of deviation from the approved building plan or site plan, the notice shall be accompanied by three sets of building plan or site plan or both as the case may be, marked ‘Completion Plan’ showing all deviations and modifications. Such plans shall be duly signed by the applicant and the technical persons authenticating the original plans along with explanatory notes if considered appropriate.

(2) Within fifteen days of receipt of the notice of completion of building of work, any inspecting authority referred to in rule 78, shall inspect the building or work and shall satisfy himself that construction of the building or execution of this work has been in accordance with the approved plan or plans or the deviations and modifications made were necessary, are not of major nature and do not infringe any provision of the relevant laws and directions thereunder.

(3) Within fifteen days from the date of such inspection, the Panchayat Samiti shall, if it is satisfied that the building or the work has been completed in accordance with the approved plan or the deviations and modifications made are acceptable in terms of sub-rule (2), issue an occupancy certificate-in Form 4B :

Provided that the occupancy certificate shall be issued only after all the extra materials like sand, boulders, stone, cement, steel rods, bamboo, timber or any other such materials lying on the public road or place have been removed and the damages, if any, to the public property or properties have been made good by the applicant at his own cost to the entire satisfaction of the Panchayat Samiti.

(4) In case the occupancy certificate is refused, the Panchayat Samiti shall communicate the reasons therefor in writing to the applicant within thirty days from the date of receipt of the notice of completion of the work; the communication may also mention the remedial additions and alterations which should be undertaken to render it possible to issue the occupancy certificate. Such communication may also specify, if deemed appropriate, the date or dates by which the additions and alterations shall be made.

(5) If the applicant fails to take satisfactory action in pursuance of the communication referred to in sub-rule(4), the Panchayat Samiti may exercise such authority and take such action as may be considered appropriate under the Act and the rules, notifications and order thereunder.

80. Construction of park and garden. – A Panchayat Samiti shall endeavour to construct at least one park and garden in a vested land in every Gram Panchayat and, for the said purpose, the Panchayat Samiti shall submit proposal to the competent authority for earmarking a particular vested land in every Gram Panchayat for park and garden.

81. Construction of public drain. – A Panchayat Samiti shall construct and maintain, where it considers necessary, a system of drainage within its predominantly residential area with sufficient outfall in or outside such residential area and, for this purpose, the Panchayat Samiti may make use of any vacant land either under its own management or as a result of set-back of any structure or building:

Provided that the Panchayat Samiti shall not build any super-structure on any vacant land available as a result of set-back of any structure or building:

Provided further that for building a system of drainage, a Panchayat Samiti shall ensure unhindered use of any approach passage or road and shall also ensure environmental sanitation in the locality.

82. Collection and disposal of solid waste. - (1) A Panchayat Samiti shall endeavour to build and maintain, where it considers necessary, a system of collection, removal and disposal of solid wastes from residential, commercial or institutional buildings.

(2) The Panchayat Samiti may provide or appoint in convenient situations, including the situation arising out of any vacant land as a result of set-back of any structure or building, public receptacles, depots or places for the temporary deposit of -

- (a) rubbish,
- (b) offensive matters,
- (c) domestic and trade refuse,
- (d) carcasses, and
- (e) excrementitious and polluted matters.

(3) It shall be the duty of the owners or the occupiers, as the case may be, of all premises to cause all matters referred to in clauses (a) to (e) of sub-rule (2) to be collected from their respective premises and to be deposited in public receptacles, depots or places, provided or appointed under sub-rule (2), at such time and in such manner as the Panchayat Samiti may, on giving adequate publicity, specify.

(4) The Panchayat Samiti shall remove at regular intervals the deposited matters as referred to in sub-rule (3) and shall make adequate provision for preventing receptacles, depots or places from becoming sources of nuisance.

(5) All matters deposited in public receptacles, depots or places as aforesaid and all solid wastes collected, shall be the property of the Panchayat Samiti.

(6) For the purpose of disposal of solid wastes, the Panchayat Samiti may take assistance of a neighbouring Gram Panchayat in such manner and under such conditions as may be mutually agreed upon.

83. Appeal against the decision of the Panchayat Samiti.- (1) If, on receipt of an application under sub-rule (1) of rule (65), a Panchayat Samiti refuses to grant permission to the erection of any structure or building, an aggrieved person may prefer an appeal to the Executive Officer of the Zilla Parishad, having jurisdiction, within ninety days from the date of communication of such order of refusal. The Executive Officer of the Zilla Parishad or any other officer of the Zilla Parishad, on being authorised by him in this behalf, shall decide the matter after giving notice to the parties concerned and his decision in the matter shall be final.

(2) If, on receipt of an application under sub-rule (1) of rule 65, such application is referred to the Zilla Parishad under sub-rule (2) of rule 74 and the Zilla Parishad refuses to grant permission for the erection or construction of any structure or building, an aggrieved person may prefer an appeal to the Divisional Commissioner having jurisdiction within ninety days from the date of communication of such order of refusal. The Divisional Commissioner or any other officer in his establishment, on being authorised by him in this behalf, shall decide the matter after giving notice to the parties concerned and his decision in the matter shall be final.

(3) In the event of any Panchayat Samiti violating these provisions, the State Government may discontinue disbursement of grant towards establishment costs to such Panchayat Samiti and take action in terms of section 213 or section 214, as may be deemed appropriate.

87. Employees of Panchayat Samiti. – (1) Subject to such general or special order as may be issued by the State Government from time to time, the establishment of the Panchayat Samiti shall consist of the following categories of employees with such number of posts in each such category as correspondingly shown hereunder:

- (i) Deputy Secretary - one
- (ii) Block Informatics Officer - one
- (iii) Samiti Education Officer – one

[Powers, functions and duties of the Samiti Education Officer shall be prescribed later.]

- (iv) Cashier-cum-Storekeeper – one
- (v) Upper Division Assistant – one
- (vi) Accounts Clerk – one
- (vii) Data Entry Operator - one
- (viii) Clerk-Cum-Typist- one
- (ix) Peon – one:

Provided that the State Government may, by order, abolish any such post or create any other post in the Panchayat Samiti or place at the disposal of the Panchayat Samiti the services of such officers and employees for serving under it on such terms and conditions as it may think fit.

88. Appointment on compassionate Ground. – Appointment on compassionate ground to the dependents of the employees of a Panchayat Samiti, who has died in harness or who has retired prematurely on being declared permanently incapacitated, shall be governed by such orders as may be issued in this behalf by the State Government from time to time.

89. Service condition of employees of Panchayat Samiti. – (1) Every candidate selected for appointment shall submit to the appointing authority along with his joining report a declaration stating the year, month and date of his birth and produce documentary evidence in support of such declaration. The appointing authority shall, after examining the declaration and the evidence produced in support thereof, pass an order accepting the date of birth. The date of birth so declared and accepted shall be binding on the candidate and he shall have no right to revise it subsequently for any reason whatsoever. The declaration shall be in Form 8.

(2) The appointing authority may at any time review the order accepting the date of birth under sub rule (1) and modify the same; but it shall not be modified to the disadvantage of the employee unless he has been given an opportunity for making a representation.

(3) An employee of a Panchayat Samiti shall be deemed to be on probation on completion of continuous temporary service of two years after his initial appointment in a post and shall be confirmed and made permanent by the appointing authority on satisfactory completion of the period of such probation for one year:

Provided that the appointing authority may extend the period of probation by one year at a time if the service of an employee has not been found satisfactory or who has not passed the training course as may be specified for any group of employees during the period of probation:

Provided further that for confirmation of an employee of the Panchayat Samiti, in such matter and in manner as are not expressly provided in these rules or the Act, the provisions of the West Bengal Services (Appointment, Probation and confirmation) Rules, 1979 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Provided also that an employee of a Panchayat Samiti who is on substantive appointment to a permanent post under Central or State Government or any local authority, shall acquire a lien on such permanent post and shall cease to hold such lien in the manner as applicable to a State Government employee under the West Bengal Service Rules, Part – 1.

(4) All employees of the Panchayat Samiti shall be required to record their daily attendance in a register, which may be verified and endorsed by the Executive Officer or by the Joint Executive Officer or by the Secretary, if so authorised by the Executive Officer of the Panchayat Samiti.

(5) Casual leave not exceeding fourteen days in every English calendar year may be granted to the employees of the Panchayat Samiti by the Executive Officer. Casual leave shall not ordinarily be granted to an employee in the manner that may entail absence from office for more than seven days at a time including Sundays or holidays. The employees of the Panchayat Samiti may also enjoy the benefit of earned leave, half-pay leave, commuted leave, extra-ordinary leave, leave not due, quarantine leave and maternity leave to such extent and in such manner as are admissible to a State Government employee on an identical or comparable scale of pay under the West Bengal Service Rules and subject to the general supervision and direction of the Artha Sanstha Unnayan O Parikalpana Sthayee Samiti, any such leave shall be sanctioned by the Executive Officer and the leave so granted shall be kept recorded in the Service Book of the employee concerned:

Provided that no leave of any kind shall, however, be claimed by an employee as a matter of right and the sanctioning authority may refuse any prayer for leave at any time in the interest of public service. At the time of retirement on superannuation, or termination of service in any other manner, encashment of earned leave of an employee for the admissible period as may be determined by order from time to time, may be sanctioned by the Executive Officer in such manner as may be laid down, by order, by the State Government, on obtaining the approval of the Artha Sanstha Unnayan O Parikalpana Sthayee Samiti.

(6) Service Books and other records of all employees of the Panchayat Samiti shall be maintained, authenticated and kept in the custody of the Executive Officer or the Joint Executive Officer or the Secretary in such manner and to such extent as may be decided by the Executive Officer.

(7) The employees of a Panchayat Samiti may be transferred within the district by the Executive Officer of the Zilla Parishad or, subject to any direction given by him, by the District Panchayat and Rural Development Officer and shall be allowed joining time not exceeding seven days as may be specified in the order of transfer:

Provided that an employee of a Panchayat Samiti may seek transfer outside the district only once during the service period and for such transfer, the concerned employee shall submit a petition to the Executive Officer of the Panchayat Samiti for placing the same in the meeting of the Artha Sanstha Unnayan O Parikalpana Sthayee Samiti for discussion and recommendation. The Executive Officer shall then send the proposal along with the resolution of the said Sthayee Samiti, to the Executive Officer of the Zilla Parishad who after examining the proposal may forward it to the Commissioner of Panchayats and Rural Development for consideration. The Commissioner may, thereafter, issue transfer order either against a vacant post or by interlinking it with another such proposal:

Provided further that in case of transfer of an employee of a Panchayat Samiti outside the district, his seniority relating to past service shall be forfeited and name of the employee shall be entered in the gradation list of the new district on his joining thereto, against a new serial number after the last existing entries in the said list.

(8) An employee of a Panchayat Samiti shall attend training course in any institution or any training camp whenever he is called upon to do so by the competent authority. The Panchayat Samiti concerned shall allow the selected employees to attend such training and such employees shall be deemed to be on duty during the period of training including the period of journey to and from the place of training.

90. Discipline and control over employees. – (1) (i) The Executive Officer may, subject to ratification by the Artha Sanstha Unnayan O Parikalpana Sthayee Samiti in its next meeting, place an employee of the Panchayat Samiti under suspension when -

- (a) a disciplinary proceeding or departmental enquiry against him is contemplated or is pending;
- (b) he has been detained in a custody for a period exceeding forty-eight hours under any law providing for preventive detention or as a result of a proceeding either on a criminal charge or otherwise; or
- (c) he has been implicated in a proceeding initiated against him in charge of a criminal offence involving moral turpitude or involving any other cognizable offence, punishable with imprisonment for a period of more than six months.

(ii) During the period of suspension, such employee shall be entitled to subsistence allowance and to pay and allowance on reinstatement subject to such penalty as may be imposed upon him under sub-rule (2), in respect of the period of suspension at such rate as is admissible to a Government servant on an identical or comparable scale of pay under rule 71 and 72 of the West Bengal Service Rules, Part I:

Provided that in a case where an employee is detained in custody under any law providing for preventive detention, the subsistence allowance admissible under the said rule shall be reduced by the amount of allowance, if any, paid to the detainee under the relevant laws or rules for the time being in force.

(2) Subject to the provisions under section 121 and also subject to any general or special direction issued by the State Government on the procedure to be followed in this behalf, the Executive Officer may start proceedings at any time against an employee of Panchayat Samiti for imposition of the following penalties:-

- (a) censure;
- (b) withholding of increments or promotion;
- (c) recovery from pay of the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to the Panchayat Samiti by negligence, dereliction of duty, wrongful act or breach of orders;
- (d) reduction to a lower stage in the time scale of pay for a specified period;
- (e) reduction in rank and service which shall ordinarily be a bar to the promotion to the higher post or cadre for a specified period;
- (f) compulsory retirement;
- (g) removal from service; and
- (h) dismissal from service which shall ordinarily be a disqualification for future employment:

Provided that for the purpose of initiating a proceeding, the Executive Officer shall serve a notice to the employee to show cause as to why he shall not be proceeded against for negligence, dereliction of duty, wrongful act or any other commission or omission or violation of duties or obligations as referred to in rule 93 and shall also be served with appropriate articles of charge framed against him with a statement of imputation of misconduct, if necessary:

Provided further that the Executive Officer shall place a report in the next meeting of the Artha, Sanstha, Unnayan O Parikalpana Sthayee Samiti on the charges framed and misconduct alleged against such an employee:

Provided also that the employee shall, before imposition of any penalty after conclusion of the proceeding, be given an opportunity of being heard by serving a notice to show-cause as to why the action proposed shall not be taken against him:

Provided also that for the purpose of initiating and concluding the disciplinary proceedings against an employee of the Panchayat Samiti, in matters and in manners not expressly provided in these rules or the Act, the provisions of the West Bengal Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1971, shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Note – An officer, who has conducted the preliminary enquiry or investigation of a case, shall not be appointed to act as the Presenting Officer in the subsequent disciplinary proceedings

(3) In conclusion of the proceedings against an employee, the Executive officer of the Panchayat Samiti may –

- (i) impose any of the penalties as mentioned in item No. (a) to (c) of sub-rule (2) after giving the concerned employee an opportunity of being heard and shall send a copy of the order to the District Panchayat and Rural Development Officer and the Executive Officer of Zilla Parishad or to the Principal Secretary of the Darjeeling Gorkha Hill Council, as the case may be;
- (ii) recommend for any of the penalties as mentioned in item No. (d) to (h) of sub-rule (2) after giving the concerned employee an opportunity of being heard and shall send his recommendation to the Executive Officer of Zilla Parishad or to the Principal Secretary of the Darjeeling Gorkha Hill Council, as the case may be.

(4) The Executive Officer of the Zilla Parishad or the Principal Secretary of the Darjeeling Gorkha Hill Council, as the case may be, if he is satisfied with the recommendation of the Executive Officer of Panchayat Samiti, may, after giving the concerned employee an opportunity to show cause why the penalty proposed shall not be imposed upon him and on giving due consideration to his reply, if any, impose any of the penalties as mentioned in items (d) to (h) of sub-rule (2) on the employee concerned and shall send a copy of the order to the concerned Executive Officer of Panchayat Samiti and to the District Panchayat and Rural Development Officer.

(5) An appeal shall lie to the Executive Officer of Zilla Parishad or to the Principal Secretary of the Darjeeling Gorkha Hill Council, as the case may be, against an order of punishment awarded by the Executive Officer of Panchayat Samiti under clause (i) of sub-rule (3) within one month from the date of that order. On receipt of the appeal the Executive Officer of Zilla Parishad or Principal Secretary of Darjeeling Gorkha Hill Council, as the case may be, shall examine the merit of the case and give the employee concerned an opportunity of being heard. His decision shall be final and a copy of such decision shall be sent to the Executive Officer of Panchayat Samiti for taking next course of action.

(6) An appeal shall lie to the Divisional Commissioner against an order of punishment awarded by the Executive Officer of Zilla Parishad or by the Principal Secretary of Darjeeling Gorkha Hill Council, as the case may be, under sub-rule (4) within one month from the date of that order. On receipt of the appeal the Divisional Commissioner shall examine the merit of the case and give the employee concerned an opportunity of being heard. His decision shall be final and a copy of such decision shall be sent to the Executive Officer of Zilla Parishad or the Principal Secretary of Darjeeling Gorkha Hills Council, as the case may be, as well as to the Executive Officer of the concerned Panchayat Samiti for taking suitable action.

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions in sub-rule (2) the Executive Officer of Zilla Parishad or the Principal Secretary of Darjeeling Gorkha Hill Council, as the case may be, may at any time, suo moto, initiate proceedings against an employee of Panchayat Samiti when the provisions of this rule shall apply mutatis mutandis.

91. Pay and allowances. – The pay and allowances including travelling allowances of the employees of a Panchayat Samiti shall be such as may be determined from time to time, by order, by the State Government:

Provided that when an employee of a Panchayat Samiti holding a substantive post in temporary or officiating capacity, is promoted or appointed to another post in temporary or officiating capacity carrying duties and responsibilities of greater importance and higher scale of pay than those attached to the post held by him, the pay of such employee of Panchayat

Samiti in such higher scale of pay shall be fixed by the appointing authority for the higher post in such manner as may be generally applicable for the State Government employees of similar category in terms of the West Bengal Service Rules, Part – 1

92. Superannuation. – (1) The date of compulsory retirement of an employee of the Panchayat Samiti is the last day of the month in which he attains the age of 60 years, or such age, as may be determined from time to time, by order, by the State Government.

(2) The employee of a Panchayat Samiti may retire prematurely, on the ground of personal reason or deteriorated health, from service by giving written notice of not less than three months to the appointing authority through the Executive Officer and he shall be deemed to retire with effect from the date on which such notice is accepted by the appointing authority.

93. Duties, rights and obligations of the employees of Panchayat Samiti. – (1) If an employee of a Panchayat Samiti, in the discharge of his official duties is called upon to deal with or decide upon a matter in which he or any of his relatives is financially interested, he shall, at the earliest possible opportunity, bring the facts to the notice of the Sabhapati through the Executive Officer when any direction issued in this behalf shall be binding upon him.

(2) An employee shall not, without the previous sanction of the Panchayat Samiti, accept either directly or indirectly on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person, any gift of more than trifling value:

Provided that gifts in conformity with religious or social customs shall not come within the purview of this sub-rule.

(3) An employee shall not take part in the collection of subscription from among the general public in pursuance of any object whatsoever.

(4) An employee is prohibited from entering into any pecuniary transaction with any supplier or any other person in any way connected with any transaction of the Panchayat Samiti or any Gram Panchayat within the jurisdiction of that Panchayat Samiti or any other Panchayat Samiti within the district.

(5) An employee shall not, except with the previous sanction of the Panchayat Samiti, be engaged in any trade or undertake any employment other than his assigned duties under the Act or any rule or order made thereunder. An employee may undertake, with intimation to the Panchayat Samiti, honorary work of a social or charitable nature or work of a literary or artistic or scientific character or may participate in a radio or television programme on ensuring that his official responsibilities do not suffer thereby:

Provided that in pursuance of such honorary or occasional work or by such participation in a programme, an employee shall not do anything that may promote on grounds of religion, race, caste, community or language, feelings of enmity, hatred or disaffection between different classes of citizens or goes against the unity and integrity of the country or is capable of embarrassing the relations between the State Government and the Central Government or the Government of any other State or among the Zilla Parishad, the Panchayat Samiti and the Gram Panchayat:

Provided further that the Panchayat Samiti or any other competent authority may, at any time, for reasons to be recorded in writing, forbid an employee to undertake any such honorary or occasional work or to participate in any such programme.

(6) An employee shall not contest as a candidate, or interfere or canvass or use his influence in any way or do anything in aid or in obstruction of any candidate in any election nor shall he take part in, or subscribe in aid of, any electioneering party organization:

Provided that an employee, who is qualified to cast vote at such an election, may exercise his voting right but where he does so, shall avoid giving any indication of the manner in which he proposes to vote or has voted.

(7) No employee shall bring or attempt to bring any political or other outside influence to bear upon any superior authority for the furtherance of his interest in respect of matters pertaining to his service under the Panchayat Samiti.

(8) No employee shall, except with the prior sanction of the Panchayat Samiti, acquire or dispose of any immovable property by lease, mortgage, purchase, sale, gift or otherwise, either in his own name or in the name of any member of his family, where such transaction is conducted otherwise than through a regular or reputed dealer; the same condition shall apply in the case of sale or purchase of movable property exceeding ten thousand rupees in value:

Provided that the movable or immovable properties owned by the members of the family of the employee, either acquired by them from out of their own fund or inherited by them, shall not come under the provisions of this sub-rule.

(9) An employee shall have the right to form an association or federative body of employees unless the objects of activities of such association or federative body are prejudicial to the interest of the sovereignty of India or public order or morality.

(10) An employee shall not be a member of any political party or political organization.

(11) An employee of the Panchayat Samiti other than a peon, shall submit to the Executive Officer of the Panchayat Samiti, a declaration in respect of his assets as they stood on 1st January of each year within 30th April of that year in the format as given in Annexure I.

(12) The services of all employees of a Panchayat Samiti shall be guided by an open performance report and a report on attendance, performance and efficiency, accountability and integrity which shall be collectively termed as Annual Performance Report. The Secretary shall initiate Annual Performance Report of the Panchayat Samiti employees at the end of a financial year not later than 30th April of the following year in the format as given in Annexure II for Group B, C and D employees classified in the same manner as applicable to the employees of the State Government and place the same to the Executive Officer for countersignature which shall be finally accepted by the Sabhapati. Appraisal on attendance, performance and efficiency, accountability and integrity of the employees shall be done in such manner as may be directed by the State Government, by any general or special order, from time to time.

Chapter XV

Inspections

94. Inspection of Panchayat Samiti under section 205. – (1) The Commissioner of Panchayats & Rural Development and any other prescribed authority under section 205 may inspect or cause to be inspected a Panchayat Samiti for the purpose of superintending and assessing the functions as well as physical and financial performances of the Panchayat Samiti in pursuance of the provisions of the Act and the rules and orders thereunder. For this purpose the State Government may develop a format for preparing such inspection report to capture the important functional areas of the Panchayat Samiti. Such format shall focus on its performance in the field of institutional capacity building, preparation of development plan and implementation of programmes and schemes for economic development and social justice in participatory mode, mobilization of its own resources, effective and timely utilization of fund, maintenance of accounts including taking of remedial measures relating to audit reports and building up social and human capital bases in its area.

(2) The State Government may, by general or special order, designate officers under its establishment at the appropriate level to inspect the Panchayat Samiti and may introduce a suitable format for preparing inspection report.

(3) At the time of inspection the Commissioner or the prescribed authority may direct a Panchayat Samiti to produce any book including books of accounts, register, record, and inspection and audit reports and physically verify the cash in hand. He may seek clarification on any related issue. He may also make field inspection and physically verify progress of any programme, scheme or other work.

(4) The inspecting authority as stated in sub-rule (2) shall submit a report of such inspection to the State Government in the specified format as early as possible within one month from the date of inspection focusing on the performance level of the Panchayat Samiti as also their strengths and weaknesses in different areas of activity so that suitable measures may be taken for improvement of functions of the Panchayat Samiti.

95. Inspection of Panchayat Samiti under section 163. – (1) A Zilla Parishad may inspect or cause to be inspected any immovable property or any work in progress, owned or controlled by a Panchayat Samiti within its jurisdiction or any department of the Panchayat Samiti or any service or work provided by the Panchayat Samiti and the manner of utilization of any fund in respect of schemes or programmes assigned to the Panchayat Samiti by any higher authority.

(2) The Artha, Sanstha, Unnayan O Parikalpana Sthayee Samiti of the Zilla Parishad may authorize any member or members or any officer of the Zilla Parishad or of any Sthayee Samiti to make inspection under sub-rule (1).

(3) The inspecting authority under sub-rule (2) may require a Panchayat Samiti to produce any book including books of accounts, register, record, and inspection and audit reports. He may seek clarification on any related issue. He may also make field inspection and physically verify progress of any programme, scheme or other works.

(4) On completion of inspection, the inspecting authority shall submit a report to the Artha, Sanstha, Unnayan O Parikalpana Sthayee Samiti of the Zilla Parishad covering the issues on which the inspection was caused. In addition to clearly specifying the status of the matter inspected, the inspecting authority shall record his suggestions for improvement as may be required. The said Sthayee Samiti or any other Sthayee Samiti as may be requested by it in this behalf, may either suitably advise the Panchayat Samiti in the matter or place the inspection report with its views in the meeting of the Zilla Parishad for taking decision regarding the next course of action. If deemed necessary, the Zilla Parishad may refer the matter to the State Government for appropriate action.

96. Inspection of Panchayat Samiti under section 214A. – (1) The Adhyaksha or any member or members, as may be authorized by the District Council for Panchayats, may inspect a Panchayat Samiti for examination of the accounts of its fund in relation to the budget approved by the Panchayat Samiti for the expenditure to be incurred by it, and other books of accounts as may be deemed necessary.

(2) For the purpose of inspection under sub-rule (1), the inspecting authority may require the Panchayat Samiti to produce, inter alia, – (i) the annual report of the Panchayat Samiti in Form 27 of the West Bengal Panchayat (Zilla Parishad and Panchayat Samiti) Accounts and Financial Rules, 2003, (ii) annual report in Form 8 under these rules, (iii) monthly or annual reports relating to any programme or scheme assigned to it, (iv) the inspection reports on the annual audit of accounts conducted by the auditors appointed under section 186 and also the replies thereto furnished by the Panchayat Samiti and (v) the accounts of stores and stocks maintained by the Panchayat Samiti.

(3) In course of inspection, the inspecting authority shall satisfy himself, inter alia, that (i) the fund shown in the accounts have been properly applied for the purposes for which it was meant and budgeted for, (ii) the moneys have been spent in conformity with the rules and procedure applicable for the purpose and in all cases financial norms and propriety have been observed and (iii) every reappropriation has been made following the rules as may be applicable.

(4) The District Council on the basis of the inspection report shall recommend steps for improvement of maintenance of accounts and for effective utilization of the available fund. It may also suggest ways and means to remove the difficulties if any experienced by the Panchayat Samitis in its functions according to the provisions of the Act or rules made thereunder.

(5) The Panchayat Samiti shall consider the recommendations of the District Council and take remedial measures for improving maintenance of their accounts and shall furnish a report of compliance to the District Council within one month following the month in which the recommendations are received. In case the Panchayat Samiti does not agree with any recommendation, it shall furnish the reasons for such disagreeability along with the compliance report.

(6) If the Panchayat Samiti does not take any action or any action taken or proposed is not deemed satisfactory, the District Council shall refer the matter to the Executive Officer of the Zilla Parishad and also to the District Magistrate for issuing suitable direction to the defaulting Panchayat Samiti. If necessary the District magistrate may refer the matter to the Commissioner, Panchayat and Rural Development for appropriate action under sections 213 or 214 as may be deemed appropriate.

97. Inspection of Panchayat Samiti under section 186. – (1) The Auditor appointed under section 186 shall examine and audit the accounts of the fund of the Panchayat Samiti every year in pursuance of the provisions of chapter XVIII of the Act and relevant provisions of the West Bengal Panchayat (Zilla Parishad and Panchayat Samiti) Accounts and Financial Rules, 2003.

(2) The Panchayat Samiti shall be required to produce all books of accounts and other records for the purpose of audit as may be called for. It shall also take remedial actions and furnish its replies as prescribed under the rules referred to in sub-rule (1).

98. Inspection of Gram Panchayat by Panchayat Samiti under section 115. – (1) A Panchayat Samiti may inspect or cause to be inspected any immovable property or any work in progress, owned or controlled by a Gram Panchayat or any service provided by the Gram Panchayat and the manner of utilization of any fund in respect of schemes or programmes assigned to the Gram Panchayat by any higher authority, within its jurisdiction.

(2) The Artha, Sanstha, Unnayan O Parikalpana Sthayee Samiti of the Panchayat Samiti may authorize any member or members or any officer of the Panchayat Samiti or of any Sthayee Samiti to make inspection under sub-rule (1).

(3) The inspecting authority under sub-rule (2) may require a Gram Panchayat to produce any book including books of accounts, register, record, and inspection and audit reports. He may seek clarification on any related issue. He may also make field inspection and physically verify progress of any programme, scheme or other works.

(4) On completion of inspection, the inspecting authority shall submit a report to the the Artha, Sanstha, Unnayan O Parikalpana Sthayee Samiti of the Panchayat Samiti covering the issues on which the inspection was caused. In addition to clearly specifying the status of the matter inspected, the inspecting authority shall record his suggestions for improvement as may be required. The said Sthayee Samiti or any other Sthayee Samiti as may be requested by it in this behalf, may either suitably advise the Gram Panchayat in the matter or place the inspection report with its views in the meeting of the Panchayat Samiti for taking decision regarding the next course of action. If deemed necessary, the Panchayat Samiti may refer the matter to the Zilla Parishad or to the State Government for appropriate action.
