

Government of West Bengal
School Education Department
(Secondary Branch)

No. 490-SE(S)/2P-01/2009, dated the 11th May, 2009.

ORDER

The matter of extending the facility of undergoing training of Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.) or its equivalent to the untrained Assistant Teachers of Recognised Aided Non-Government Educational Institutions in privately managed/self financed Institutes/Universities (Regular or Distance Education mode) has been under active consideration of this Department.

As per clause (1) of Memo No. 982-Sc/G dated 07-03-1968 some institutions have been specified for obtaining training on deputation. The Governor is pleased hereby to clarify that privately managed institutions as well as institutions imparting the said training through correspondence or distance mode shall be treated in similar manner provided the said training is approved by the National Council of Teacher Education (NCTE). All other terms and conditions stipulated in the above mentioned Memo including submission of written undertaking from the deputed teacher to the sponsoring institution for serving a period not less than three years after completion of B.Ed. training shall be fulfilled.

In case of the untrained Assistant Teacher of the Recognised Aided Non-Government Educational Institutions pursuing the said training from privately managed institutions the mode of payment of pay and allowances as admissible to him shall be through the concerned School Authority on production of certificate from the Head of the Training Institution to the effect that the deputed teacher is undergoing the said training programme regularly.

It is further clarified that the cost of training in privately managed institutions (regular or distance education mode) shall be borne by the trainee teacher.

By order of the Governor
