Provided further that a certificate of settlement shall be issued by the designated authority separately in respect of every application made under section 5.

(2) The designated authority, for reasons to be recorded in writing, may refuse to settle a dispute, or rectify or amend a certificate of settlement issued under sub-section (1):

12. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 9 or section 10, where it appears to the designated authority that an applicant has obtained the benefit of settlement under this Act by suppressing any material information or particulars or by furnishing any incorrect or false information or particulars, such designated authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing and after giving the applicant a reasonable opportunity of being heard, revoke the certificate of settlement issued under sub-section (1) of section 8.

The West Bengal Sales Tax (Settlement of Dispute) Act, 1999.(Sections 13-16.)

(2) If a certificate of settlement is revoked under sub-section (1), the appeal or revision, as the case may be, under the relevant Act, covered by such certificate of settlement, shall, notwithstanding the provision of section 9 or section 10, stand revived or reinstated immediately upon such revocation, and such appeal or revision shall be decided in accordance with the provisions of the relevant Act, as if no settlement of the arrear tax, penalty or interest in dispute in such appeal or revision has ever been made under this Act.

Information to be sent to the authorities under the relevant Act.

13. The designated authority shall keep the assessing authority, the appellate authority or the revisional authority, who, for the time being, has jurisdiction over the applicant under the relevant Act, informed, inter alia, of—
