NOTIFICATION

West Bengal Tourist Guide Certification Scheme

1. Introduction:

The Department of Tourism, Government of West Bengal, continuously endeavors to work towards strengthening the Tourism Sector with focus on strengthening the capacity of all stakeholders with whom the visitor is likely to interact during their stay in the State. The Tourist Guides play a significant role in promoting the destinations and products of the State and providing an enriching experience.

The competence of the person directly interacting with the visitor would have a major role to play. This role would invariably be played by the Tourist Guides who would be directly interacting with the visitor. Direct interaction with the tourists makes them even more responsible for projecting the state in a correct manner by furnishing factually correct information about the destination, ensuring the safety of the tourists as well as providing a pleasant and satisfying experience for them during their visits.

The experience that such a Tourist Guides provide to the visitor would be dependent on the knowledge, etiquette, communication and presentation skills that they possess. A robust policy for this particular segment with emphasis on continuous skill development which can keep pace with the ever changing & evolving demand & needs of the Tourism Industry is required.
